Subject Appointment of Non-Official Presidents to Municipalities	The Presidents of municipalities are usually mild men who cannot devote sufficient attention to the affairs of the municipalities amidst their multifarious duties. The Vice Presidents cannot perform the duties of the Presidents in the absence of specific orders of Government to that effect. It is therefore necessary that non-official Presidents should be appointed to all the municipalities which desire to have the privile[illegible]

Venkatasubbian	The Presidents of Municipalities are generally Amildars who cannot devote sufficient attention to the affairs of the Municipalities amidst their multifarious duties The Vice Presidents cannot perform the duties of the Presidents in the absence of specific orders of Government to that effect. It is therefore necessary that non-official Presidents should be appointed to all the Municipalities which desire to have the privilege.	In the case of Minor Municipal Councils provision has been made for the new bill under consideration (Section 12) for the election of Non-official Presidents in all cases and there will be no Vice Presidents and during the absence of the President, the Taluk Amildar shall attend to all the duties of the President. In the case of the other Municipal Councils under Section 23 of the Municipal Regulation Government may appoint a President-Non-official or ex-officio or the President may be an elected one if Government so direct In the amending Bill under consideration provision has been made for the conduct of the work and duties of the President during his absence by the Deputy Commissioner in the case of City and District Head Quarter Municipal Councils and by Amildars or any other Officer doing his work in other Municipal Councils There will be no objection to allow non-official Presidents for Major Municipal Councils where the circumstances are favourable and there is necessity for such an appointment
